Jesus: The Only Hope

Adrian Rogers - 201Friday, November 10, 2017

Are Christians fools for believing in Jesus? Are we mere sentimentalists, or do we have reasonable reasons for believing in the Lord Jesus Christ? My dear friend, false religion will never satisfy the hungry heart.

If you go to the tomb of Confucius, you'll find it is occupied. If you go to the tomb of Buddha, you'll find it is occupied. If you go to the tomb of Jesus, you'll find it empty. He is a risen Savior. Hallelujah!

Now that's very important because, you see, you can take Confucius out of Confucianism and still have Confucianism. And you can take Buddha out of Buddhism and still have Buddhism. But you cannot take Jesus Christ out of Christianity and still have Christianity, because Christianity is not a code, it's not a creed, it's not a cause. It is Christ Himself in you.

Jesus alone takes the sting out of sin, the pain out of parting, the gloom out of the grave, the dread out of dying. And Jesus alone gives a hope that is steadfast and sure.

"But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear" (1 Peter 3:15).
